AND THE NAME IS...

"The name is METS...just plain Mets."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers...As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo, designed by sports cartoonist Ray Gatto and unveiled on November 16, 1961, has gone unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

CASEY'S LAST GAME

On Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1965 the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets at Shea, 5-1...The game would be the last in the distinguished career of manager Casey Stengel...Stengel was forced into retirement by a broken hip he would suffer later that night...Here are some details of the game:

Jim Bunning struck out 12, in tossing a two-hitter for the Phillies...Johnny Lewis had both Met hits including a solo home run in the fourth that provided New York's only run...Wes Covington went 3-3, with a double, a home run, and three RBI to lead the Phils...Richie Allen added three hits for Philadelphia and Dick Stuart cracked a home run.

SELF SUPPORT

In the entire 35-year history of the club, only twice has a Mets pitcher belted a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first homer ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded homer at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30th, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea. Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson in 1962, Willard Hunter in 1964 and Jesse Orosco in 1983—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds 3-2 and 8-7 with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of no-hit shutout relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins; 7-6 and 1-0.

1-0 GAMES

The Mets have an all-time record of 87-86 in games that have ended with 1-0 scores, including a 2-2 mark in 1996...The most 1-0 wins the Mets have had in any season were in 1969, when the club went 9-5...September 29, 1993 the Mets and Cardinals battled for 16 scoreless innings before Jeff Kent's 17th-inning double plated the game's only run...A long evening, but not a club record...That honor belongs to the 1-0 Mets loss on April 15, 1968 when the Mets and Astros went 23 scoreless innings before Houston pushed across the winning run on an infield error.

WHY UNIFORM NUMBER 44

Jason Isringhausen has a special reason for wearing uniform Number 44. It's a tribute to Shaun Watson, his former high school teammate and a Mets Draft Choice in the 1990 June Draft. Shaun, a righthanded pitcher, was forced to leave the game because of arm problems.

"The reason I got signed in high school was because the Mets were coming to see Shaun," said Jason. "Forty four was our favorite number I wore it in football and he wore it in basketball. It was Shaun's number when he came to the Mets. This is my way of saying to him I wouldn't be here if it wasn't for you".

EMERGENCY WORK

Bill Pecota is the only Met position player in the club's 35-year history to take the mound for New York. The infielder pitched the eighth inning at Pittsburgh on September 26, 1992 in a 19-2 loss. He allowed a leadoff homer to Andy Van Slyke and then retired William Pennyfeather, Kevin Young and Al Martin on a lineout and two groundouts.

Several current Met position players have at some point in their careers come in to pitch with varying degrees of success. Here is the rundown:

Alvaro Espinoza: Made his pitching debut on August 6, 1991 for the Yankees at Chicago...Retired the only two batters he faced, major league All-Stars, Tim Raines and Robin Ventura.

Andy Tomberlin: The converted pitcher hurled two scoreless innings, on May 20, 1994 as a member of the Red Sox (at Minnesota)...He allowed one hit, one walk, with a strikeout in a 21-1 loss.

Tim Bogar: Has never pitched in a big league game, however on May 9, 1996 in an exhibition vs. the Mets Triple A affiliate at Norfolk he played all nine positions...In the sixth inning, he retired the only batter he faced on a foul pop to the catcher.

10 STRAIGHT STRIKEOUTS

Tom Seaver set a major league record on April 22, 1970 at Shea, when he struck out 10 consecutive Padres. In the game he struck out 19. The 10 in succession were:

Al Ferrara, called out to end the sixth inning.
Nate Colbert, swinging in the seventh.
Dave Campbell, called out in the seventh.
Jerry Morales, called out in the seventh.

Ivan Murrell, batting for shortstop Jose Arcia, swinging in the eighth.
Van Kelly, swinging in the ninth.
Cito Gaston, called out in the ninth.

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Cardinals' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shot's off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long homers at Shea.

THE BIG COMEBACK

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. The Mets overcame a fourth inning, 6-0 deficit on Opening Day 1996 to defeat the Cardinals, 7-6. However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Mets posted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS

40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS

To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE

Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat, (At-Bats do not include walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE

Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS

Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

INTER-LEAGUE AND INTRA-LEAGUE TRADES

No waivers necessary from 5 p.m., Eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through 5 p.m., Eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR"

172 days constitute a full year in the Major Leagues.

ROOKIE RULE

The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.
